Welcome to AOMSI Online E-Election System (DEMO)

Respected Seniors, Esteemed Members, and Dear Colleagues,

Warm greetings from the Association of Oral & Maxillofacial Surgeons of India (AOMSI).

This year, AOMSI is introducing Online Elections for the very first time, and this platform has been prepared as a DEMONSTRATION MODULE to help members understand the online voting process.

AOMSI has collaborated with a technical team experienced in conducting secure and transparent online elections for national medical and dental bodies across India.

This demo system reflects the workflow, security standards, and user interface planned for the official AOMSI elections.

Please do take part in this online voting and do forward your suggestions and feedback to "secretary@aomsi.com", so that we can make any improvements deemed necessary.

Thanking you in anticipation of an overwhelming response.

With Regards

AOMSI Election Committee
